NEVER MIND.

When I nester stub my toe
In the rocky road,
Mother, she could soothe my woe;
She's the one that knowed
How to banish my dismay
With a word so kind.
It stopped hurtin' when she'd say:
"Sonny, never mind."

Arnieky, an' lint an' things
Couldn't stop the pain,
But her gentle voice that rings
Often an' again
In my dreamin' had a charm
Strong, though undefined.
Jes' them words 'ad help the harm—
"Sonny, never mind."

If she only could be near
When I stumble now,
Maybe I could persevere
With a placid brow—
If she jes' could pat my head,
As when she would bind
Every boyish hurt, an' said:
"Sonny, never mind."

The M. P. Wells goes to Buena Vista tonight.

The Urania will be down tonight from Huntington.

The Henry M. Stanley will be down tonight from Pomeroy.

The Virginia from Pittsburgh with a big trip will pass down tonight.

Captain A. B. French, whose showboat, the New Sensation, was burned near Vicksburg several months ago, has let a contract for the construction of a much larger theater, and the work is well under way. The craft will be 40 feet wide, 165 feet long, and will have a better stage than the old boat.

The citizens of Marietta recently united and objected to the building of a movable dam, which is to be known as No. 18, at that place. Word was received from the Secretary of War by Major Bixby Monday, notifying him that the protests had been withdrawn and request made that the work of drawing up specifications be commenced.

The Secretary of War has granted the application of the Benwood-Belair Bridge Company for a rehearing in the matter of a bridge at Belair, O., which will occur in Major Powell's office in Pittsburgh April 16. The company intends to erect a bridge directly above the railroad bridge, and it wants a channel span of 500 feet, while the river interests insist upon 800 feet.

A permit has been granted the Marietta Bridge Company to build a bridge across the Ohio river which will be strong enough to allow loaded freight and steam cars to pass over it. The bridge will be constructed at the foot of Marietta Island with a pier resting on the island and two on the banks. The span over the main channel will be 850 feet and that over the back channel 600 feet.

Unless another rainfall develops during the ensuing forty-eight hours the upper Ohio river will be low enough today to enable the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company to start many tows of coal for Southern points. The rivers, which rose rapidly Sunday, started to recede and are falling at the rate of about 4 inches an hour. Reports from headwaters are to the effect that the fall is general. About 2,000,000 bushels of coal have been dropped down into the Pittsburgh harbor by the river company, and this and more will get away today, providing the river is not too high. The mines were started full and will continue to be operated in this way until all the empty craft, which is now there, is refilled. As fast as boats, barges and flats are filled they will be dropped into the harbor and started South. There are plenty of steamers in port to take out the coal, and the week promises to be a busy one for rivermen.

DON'T KNOW NUTHIN'.

The Case Against William Chambers Continued Till 2 P. M. Today.

William Chambers, charged with burglary and with larceny, was arraigned before Judge Wadsworth yesterday, and on motion of his Attorney the case was continued until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

In conversation with THE LEDGER man Chambers denied all knowledge of his presence at the Beehive on Saturday night, although he fesses up to having gone into the alley leading to the rear of it, for the purpose, as he says, of "throwing up."

His mind is also a sublime blank when it comes to his presence in Odd-fellows Hall; and he knows absolutely nothing about cutting through a door in that building—although a badly-scared knife was found on his person, and that there are two fresh cuts of pretty good size on his fingers, the blood from which marks the jamb of the door through which he cut his way to temporary liberty.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature, rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boecher's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you.
